Good things happen to those who wait.

A radiant Deborah Grey became Deborah Larson when she was wed to Lewis Larson at Dewberry Community Church Saturday.

And the fact that it's a little unusual to be wed at the age of 41 was not lost on the Beaver River MP.

"They say a woman has a better chance of getting struck by lightning than getting married when she's over the age of 40," Deborah Lawson said with a smile, at an open house in Heinsburg.

"I've set another record."

And as far as the approximately 275 people in attendance at Dewberry Church were concerned - the wait was worth it.

Pastor Steve Lagor from Edmonton may have summed it up best when he stated: "The town of Dewberry will never be the same."

The ceremony featured a reunion of HIS, Deborah's old gospel singing group.

A love-struck Grey sang heartwarming renditions of Just You and I, and Wind Beneath My Wings to Lewis.

The vows were then given by John McNabb from Heinsburg after which a humorous Challenge to the Couple was given by Maxine Hancock.

"It doesn't matter how many years you live together," Hancock warned the couple. "You will be living in a perpetual state of surprise."

The first surprise came a lot quicker than expected.

That's because the flower girls, five-year-old Kristen Hancock and three-year-old Marissa Hancock, temporarily stole the show.

With TV cameras buzzing and flashbulbs popping, the Hancocks decided now was the perfect time to rearrange - and play with - their flower baskets.

THOSE GREY DAYS ARE OVER -- Beaver River MP Deborah Grey added a new job to her itinerary Saturday, that of housewife. Grey was wed to Lewis Larson Saturday at the Dewberry Community Church. The Larsons were joined by Deborah's flower girls, (far left) Kristen Hancock and Marissa Hancock.

Inaugural cattle show a success

STEER STAKE GRAND CHAMPION - Jennifer Fenton showed this glossy Maine Anjou - Angus cross steer to the Grand Championship, winning $3000 and the River Bend View Ranch banner. Eric Holthe, Chris Havener and Albert Naber of the Livestock Show Committee and Judge Ron Noble admire the winner

Elk Point and District Agricultural Society's first livestock show for many decades was a big success. Judge Ron Noble, a Lloydminster commercial cattleman, told the Ag Society "you've planted the seed here...this will grow and mature into a show that will be widely recognized."

Eleven steers, from as far away as Edam and Herbert, Saskatchewan and Loughheed, Alberta competed for $6100 in prize money in the Classic Steer Stake. The steers were divided into two classes for preliminary judging, with $200 going to the top two in each class and $150 to the third place steer. The top two from each class then competed for the Grand and Reserve Championships.

Jennifer Fenton of Irma walked away with both banners. A Maine Anjou - Angus cross jointly owned by herself and Viking Grain and Livestock took the $3000 first prize and River Bend View Ranch banner, while her own Limousin - Angus cross, shown by her mother Judy, took the Reserve Championship's $2000 prize and the Woody's Trophy banner. Debbie and Rocky Payne's black Limousin steer from Lloydminster placed third, with Curtis Sutter's Salers from Loughheed fourth.

In preliminary judging, the Payne and Sutter steers topped the "A" Section, with Nelson Acres, Herbert, SK, third, Mike Buchen, Loughheed, fourth, Larry Homeniuk, Two Hills, fifth and David Yushyshyn, Elk Point, sixth. The two Fenton steers led the "B" Section, with Second Chance, Edam, SK, showing the third place steer, Five Roses Syndicate, Elk Point, showing number four and John Maksymec and family, Elk Point, showing number five.

A Junior Showmanship competition drew five entries, with David Yushyshyn of Elk Point winning the $50 top prize money. Curtis Sutter was second.

five breeds took part in the Heifer Show. These were also judged in two preliminary classes with prize money of $100 for each of the top two, $50 for third and $25 for fourth.

Greenwood Limousin, Lloydminster showed the Supreme Champion, Greenwood Penny Whirl for $500 and the Spring Creek Red Angus banner, while Kyla Makowecki of St. Paul showed her Black Angus, FAQ Mega Diamond, for the Reserve Champion, winning $250 and the Lazy H Simmental banner.

Preliminary judging saw Chatwin Angus of Bonnyville's Lorwin Blackcap and Greenwood Penny Whirl winning Class 1, with Red Spring Berry, shown by Spring Creek Red Angus, Elk Point, third, Duralta Manhattan Queen, Chatwin Angus, fourth, Red Lenbar Rosette, Len-Bar Ranches, Dewberry, fifth, and NCX Golden Girl, NCX Polled Herefords, Brosseau, sixth. Another NCX heifer, Miss Beau Tiffany, joined the Makowecki heifer in leading Class 2, with a heifer from Pine Meadow Red Angus, St. Paul, third, Red Spring Creek Miss 156, Spring Creek Red Angus, fourth and Creedence Chantel, Mitch Campbell, Edmonton, fifth.

Master of Ceremonies for the show was Ray Makowecki, while Lexi Noble served as Ringman.

A draw was made from the names of the over 50 sponsors for the top two steers. The Grand Champion went to the Empress Family Restaurant, while the Reserve Champion was won by Ron Campbell. Other sponsors included: Bumper to Bumper; Kudu Industries; Star Consulting Ltd.; Elk Point Hotel; Elk Point Car Wash; Lakeland Tire; Capitol Drugs; Allen and Debbie Warawa; Lakeland Meat Processors; E-Can Oilfield Services; Richland Enterprises Ltd.; Hilltop Cafe; St. Paul Auction Mart '92; Vogel's Petroleum Supplies Ltd.; JMB Crushing Systems Ltd.; Greenwood Limousin; Johnston, Bennett and Sholter; Elk Point Insurance and Realty Ltd.; BMW Monarch; Leeway Oilfield Services Ltd.; M. "I was scared when I walked up," Kristen admitted. "When my sister started taking the flowers apart -- I started to take the flowers apart."

Having gotten by the first obstacle, the newlyweds headed to Heinsburg Community Hall where they were congratulated by Avril Manning, Preston Manning's daughter, Lethbridge Reform Party candidate Ray Speaker and Redwater-Smoky Lake MLA Nick Taylor.

The new husband brought the house down, when he quipped that marrying Deborah was an opportunity he couldn't pass up.

"I've married a Reform Party MP," Lewis said. "And there's not to many people who have had that opportunity."

Joyce Levy, Deborah's mother, was glad he took the opportunity.

Levy admitted she never dreamed thirty years ago that the Vancouver-raised Deborah Grey would be married in a small town like Dewberry.

"It's a wonderful surprise," she said with a laugh.

And she's glad that Deborah waited as long as she did before tying the knot.

"We've been praying for a beautiful man to come into her life, like Lew," Levy said. "And he did."

SUMMER PLAY

Last week was water week. Because of the cold weather we weren't able to have our water fight, but we did play some water games with the children. We did some foot painting which was immensely enjoyed by all the children. We also made a trip to the St. Paul Aquatic Centre. This turned out to be a great success. We have learned a few new songs which the children know after only a week of practice. Next week is animal week. We will be talking about and seeing different animals. If you are interested in placing your child in the final weeks of the summer play program or require more information, call Tracy at 724-3800.

WHO IS ELK POINT CHILD CARE SERVICES?

Elk Point Child Care Services is the official name given to the agency in Elk Point which operates the Family Day Home program for Elk Point. What is a Family Day Home? A Family Day Home is a private residence in which care is given by an approved provider to preschool children who are not the provider's own. A provider can care for a maximum of six children, including her own. Alberta Family and Social Services also restricts the number of children in a particular age group who can be cared for in an approved Family Day Home.

Many private child care arrangements work well. The advantages of using an approved Family Day Home is that you can expect certain standards of care and certain services.

If you have any questions about becoming an approved Family Day Home provider or if you are interested in having your children cared for in one of these homes, feel free to call Deanna Easthope, Coordinator, anytime at 724-3933 or on Fridays at the Community Services Office at 724-3800.

Peter Fidler honored at Brandon, Manitoba

DESCENDANT MEETS NOMINATOR - Peggy Fidler Zaraska is shown with Joe Kostuchuk, President of Fort Dauphin Museum, who nominated Peter Fidler for the award.

Peggy Fidler Zaraska

Descendant of Peter Fidler

While on my summer vacation, my husband Ed and I had the pleasure of being present at the Dedication Ceremonies honoring Peter Fidler, 1769 - 1822, Hudson's Bay Surveyor, at the Agricultural Hall Of Fame in Brandon, Manitoba.

The ceremonies were held at the Agricultural Extension Centre on July 22, 1993 at 12 noon. This began with a grand march entry led by the Scottish bagpipers, in which I had the privilege of participating. Following the march, there was a luncheon, speakers and the dedication.

Peter Fidler was nominated by Mr. Joe Kostuchuk, president of the Fort Dauphin Museum, Dauphin, Manitoba, to be entered at the Roll of Honor. Because of Peter Fidler's contributions to the improvement of agriculture and the rural way of life, he was chosen by the Manitoba Agricultural Hall Of Fame as one of the inductees. The appropriate recognition to agriculture was given to our Peter Fidler by the Hall of Fame.

With sincere gratitude, I thank Mr. Kostuchuk for nominating Peter Fidler to the Roll of Honor and to the Hall of Fame for choosing Peter as one of their recipients for this prestigious distinction. Thanks to Louis Verhagen for sending in my name for the special invitation to the ceremony. An invitation was sent to me by Glen Omstead. Special thanks from the Fidler families and myself, Peggy Fidler Zaraska, great, great, great granddaughter of Peter Fidler.

A scroll was presented to the Fidlers at the ceremonies and reads as follows:

PETER FIDLER 1769 - 1822

Peter Fidler, born in 1769 in Bolsover, Derbyshire, England, signed on as a labourer for the Hudson's Bay Company in 1788. On his arrival in Canada, he was trained by Philip Turner, the Company's factor, as a surveyor. Peter did his job with such accuracy that his maps are referred to in modern times. He used this same accuracy for detailed drawings, and descriptions of the flora and fauna he found, as he worked his way across the prairies.

When he became Fort Master for the Company, he carried seeds wherever he went. He planted gardens at all the forts, and these gardens were grown as far north as York Factory. With many forts established, he turned his attention to the agricultural prospects of the west. During the summer of 1812, barley crops were destroyed by grasshoppers, and he noted that this destruction occurred every 18 years. He also reported that potatoes and turnips and other vegetable crops failed, due to almost continuous drought. These crops had yielded well for four years commencing in 1812, but dry summers started in 1816.

Mr. Fidler also reported on the different types of soils found at the forts, and noted that manure was seldom used, except for the raising of cucumbers, melons and onions. Potatoes, introduced into the area in 1780, were the main crops at the forts. He also introduced the first cow, bull and hen into the Selkirk Settlement, and helped to teach the settlers the art of farming.

In 1818, Peter retired to Fort Dauphin, there to tend his garden, his barley and wheat crops during his final years. At that time he wrote, as well, about the flourishing Manitoba maple syrup industry. He died in 1822, and was buried at the Fort. The memory of this remarkable man will always remain in the minds of his descendants and admirers. He was truly:

JOHNNY APPLESEED"

Another success

It just goes to show what can be accomplished by working together. This past weekend's Elk Point Agricultural Society Fair, greatly enhanced for the first time in many decades by a livestock show, was a big success.

Three essential factors in that success were the volunteer involvement, the support of the sponsors and the support of the community.

Volunteers are the backbone of the Fair, as they are of most events in this community. Volunteers were out there months in advance, planning, doing PR work, finding sponsors. They were there in the earlier parts of last week, preparing the sites and doing 101 last minute tasks. They were there when the big day came, accepting entries, collecting at the door, serving snacks and greeting the public. They were also there for the cleanup, after the exhibitors went home. A big thanks to all these hard-working individuals, and congratulations on a successful Fair and Livestock Show.

Sponsors, you too were wonderful. Fifty one sponsors for a small, first year livestock show has to be some kind of a record. You'd hardly expect that many sponsors for a big show like Northlands, even. Another 21 - some of whom also contributed to the Livestock Show - contributed prizes and plaques to the Bench Fair. This tremendous support is much appreciated, and affirms that the local businesses do care and do want this event to succeed.

The community also deserves a big round of thanks for their twofold involvement, as exhibitors and as spectators. Having seen the success of the Livestock Show, no doubt numerous local cattle breeders will be setting aside a steer or two and a heifer to show in next year's show. Response to the Bench Fair was also good, with top quality entries in everything from crafts to canning to cabbages. A goodly number of visitors came to take in the show and the exhibits, and were favorably impressed by both quality and quantity.

Congratulations to the Ag Society and their Fair Board for a job very well done.

NEW STAFF MEMBER

Fort George - Buckingham House Interpretive Centre welcomes a new staff member, Elsie Tilley. Elsie has been busy on our training program and was put to work on the Gathering of the Clans weekend. She has a vast knowledge of the local history and of natural history, and cooked up a super pancake breakfast for the Spence / Flett Family Reunion, August 1. Her husband Clarence carved the paddles used in the River Challenge trophies. Already she is proving to be a wonderful asset to the Centre. Elsie will be on staff until November 30 and perhaps longer, should we be able to keep the position open.

THANK YOU, ELK POINT

Thank you to all who assisted with the Gathering of the Clans. The descendants of James Spence and William Flett truly enjoyed the Elk Point hospitality. Special thanks to Pat Johnson and Peggy Zaraska who were very busy Friends of the Forts. Thank you to Sherry Pelech at the Visitors Centre, to all the staff at Fort George Motel, to Jean and her staff at the Empress ... many thanks.

Next year's Fort reunion? Any suggestions?

ENTRANCE FEE INCREASE

Please note, effective August 11 fees will be: Adults $2.25; Children 7 - 17 $1.25; Family $5.50. Prices include GST. Friends of the Forts Annual Pass $10 for individual and $25 for family has not changed and is not subject to GST.

LAST CALL FOR DAY CAMP

We have not had enough registrants to run the Day Camp all summer. Thanks to Albert Naber and his gang, we did have one very exciting day. There are people interested but we need a minimum of 6 to 8 children. Last chance will be Thursday, August 12. Cost for a full day of fun, games, crafts, activities, historical and natural tours is $12 per child. This week's theme will demonstrate the construction techniques of Fort George and tipis and explore the edible bounty of Mother Earth. Call 724-2611 to register.

WHAT'S NEWS AT THE LIBRARY?

The library continues to be a busy place, especially now that the weather is so unpredictable.

For those who are braving the weather to go camping, you may find the front foyer interesting. We have a large number of older magazines and used books for sale - great for camping - you don't have to worry about getting them wet!! We also have patterns, cassette tapes and book ends available.

When you enter the library you will notice our new signs. Things should be easier to find, and if you are not sure, just ask one of the staff -

That's what we're here for!! Along with the new signs, a few racks have been moved around to make things more accessible.

Again, we have a large selection of new books. These new titles should be interesting for our younger readers, and those just learning to read: Rabbit: A Practical Guide To Caring For Your Rabbit by Mark Evans; Time Detectives by Donald Badine, which is all about archaeology; Let's Go Home, Little Bear by Martin Waddell; and Angeline Dances by Helen Craig.

A few of the adult titles we

now have include: Dieppe - Tragedy to Triumph by Brigadier General Denis Whitaker; Worse Than War: The Halifax Explosion; Margaret Atwood's newest novel, Wilderness Tips; Flying In Place by Susan Palwick, a novel about the problem of child abuse; and for those who enjoyed The Silence of the Lambs, we now have Primal Fear by William Diehl.

All the Great Pumpkin growers and would-be-growers will get a chuckle out of Squashed by Joan Bauer. Although meant for young adults, older readers will also enjoy the triumphs and sympathize with the problems of Ellie Morgan, who wants more than anything to win the Pumpkin Weigh-In.

Ernie's World is being saved!!! Thanks to all the dedicated readers that are involved with the summer reading program. Ernie's once polluted waste land is being turned into a vibrant, thriving, living world. Each book, conscientious thought or action helps to clean up Ernie's World as well as our own.

This week, we thought we would end with a question that should have you thinking for a while: "What is the most eastern location in North America?" Come and take a look through our atlases and see if you can name the area. Hope to see you soon.

Thank You

We would like to thank our friends for their cards and flowers that were sent to Mom while she was in the University Hospital.

We would also like to thank Rev. Sam Donaldson for his comforting message; to Dennis Havrelock for giving the eulogy; the choir; to Gabrielle Bayduza for playing the organ and to the pallbearers. Special thanks to Maureen Fedechko for all her help with the organization preceding the funeral, to everyone for cards, flowers, telephone calls, food brought to our homes and The Golden Age Club for the lunch following the service. Thank you to Dr. Ramful for all the special care and attention he gave to mom.

The support and kindness shown to us at this time will always be remembered.

Seniors go travelling

Hazel Hannah

Pioneer Circle Secretary

At our June meeting, the Pioneer Circle decided we should go on a one day tour. Sid Holthe was asked to be our P.R. man and set up a trip. Camrose was chosen as our destination, as we'd heard they have a lovely Seniors Centre there.

Lena Kuziw and two other ladies were appointed to a committee to get passengers and collect the fees so we could hire a tour bus and set up the trip.

On July 20, everything was set. Dallaire's tour bus from Bonnyville and 34 members met at our Seniors Recreation Centre at 8 a.m., and although it was raining, our spirits were not dampened. We set off, our first stop Vegreville Seniors Centre for coffee and a tour of their facility. They have a very spacious centre and really friendly people. Prune buns and coffee were served after our tour and we were on our way again.

Mr. Holthe had a couple of really neat quiz games to entertain us en route.

We arrived at Camrose Seniors Centre just in time for lunch, prepared and sold right on the premises. We were given a guided tour, and what a beautiful, well arranged place, including a craft room with plenty of activity - quilting, weaving, knitting, etc. We floor curled one game, and those who wanted to, headed for the museum - a beautiful, well kept place with many interesting artifacts and displays. We could have spent more time there, but it was back to the Seniors Hall for coffee and to pick up those who stayed to curl another game.

It's raining again, but we have one more stop before we leave for home: The Fudge Factory, we'd seen the sign as we came in. Anyone with a sweet tooth, and a few who just wanted to look around, went in and bought home-made fudge.

Now we're all ready to head for home. Everyone who went enjoyed the day and I hope we can do it again before the summer is over. Thanks, Sid and Lena for a great day.

In Memoriam

ERENCE, Joe

In loving memory of husband, father, grandfather, who passed away August 6, 1992.

We were not able to say good-bye
The day you went away
You left us oh so suddenly
A year ago today.
We think of you in silence
We often speak your name
All we have are memories
And a picture in a frame,
If tears could build a stairway
And a heartache make a lane
We would walk the path to Heaven
And bring you home again.
Our family chain is broken
Nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
A chain will link again.
We pray to God in Heaven
To take this message above,
And tell you how much we miss you
And give you all our love.

Ever remembered and sadly missed by wife Jean, children and grandchildren.

Breast Cancer screening success

Lorraine Berube

NEAHU, Bonnyville

From November 1992 through April 1993, Screen Test, Alberta Program for the Early Detection of Breast Cancer, travelled throughout the North Eastern Alberta Health Unit to bring breast cancer screening services to the women of the area. Screen Test is a division of the Alberta Cancer Board and works in partnership with local health units to ensure as many women as possible in each community are aware and able to access the services. The program serves women in the 50 - 69 year age group offering screening mammography and information on breast health practices. Through a personal letter of invitation and a variety of community mobilization strategies, women are made aware of the service and encouraged to participate.

A total of 5 locations were visited in the health unit area, including Smoky Lake, St. Paul, Cold Lake, Bonnyville and Elk Point. Altogether, 1492 women were screened in these sites. The program was very successful in reaching the target population being 50 - 69 year old women. This is the age group that has been proven to benefit the most from regular breast cancer screening. Ninety percent of women screened were in the target age group. Only 5.6 percent of those screened required additional tests beyond screening, leaving the remainder of 94.4 percent of the local women with normal results. This is on par with international standards for abnormality rates. Cancer detection rates for the health unit were also on par with international standards.

Community mobilization is the process of involving the community in all aspects of the program with the goal being to transfer the ownership of the service to the women of the community. Various activities surrounding the services involved women, such as planning meetings, training sessions for volunteering during screening, evaluation meetings asking for feedback from the community on how to consistently improve the services, and orientation for women about the services in general and how they can participate and promote breast cancer screening. Over 135 volunteers participated in mobilizing the community and assisting in the delivery of the services.

Screen Test is an ongoing service of the Alberta Cancer Board. The program follows the Canadian recommendation for screening which are to offer women services every two years. Screen Test will be returning to the North Eastern Alberta Health Unit area in approximately two years time, November 1994, and will again be working through the health unit and with as many volunteers from the community as are interested and able to participate. A very short visit will occur in approximately one year, targeting only those women who have had the recommendation of a one year screening interval. A few appointments will be available for other women who perhaps were not eligible at the time of the regular two year visit. This shorter visit will not see the community mobilization activities because it is of such a small scale.

Screen Test and the North Eastern Alberta Health Unit would like to acknowledge the participation and enthusiastic support of the volunteers, businesses, and community at large provided for Screen Test and its staff during this first screening visit. We welcome your comments and feedback about the services and look forward to returning to your community in 1994. We appreciate your interest in this important health issue for Alberta women.

Another aggregate for Norma Berg

Winning Elk Point Agricultural Fair aggregate awards is nothing new to Norma Berg - she has won five in the past, so surely a sixth, awarded Saturday evening, cannot have been too big a surprise, even to a lady who said she was cutting back on her entries this year, when she picked up entry tags a few days ago.

In addition to the Grand Aggregate plaque from Vogel's UFA and the cash prize from Norcen Energy Resources, Mrs. Berg was the Aggregate winner in two sections of the 1993 Fair. She took home a prize sponsored by Michelle's Hair Design in the Flowers section, convened by Helen Benner, and a gift certificate from the Empress Family Restaurant for the Canning section, convened by Lois Yaremkevich.

Grand Aggregate Runner Up Christina Brown, who accepted the Pan Canadian Petroleum award, also won two sections. She accepted the Toronto Dominion Bank award from convenor Ellen Seward for the Knitting, Crochet and Weaving section and a prize donated by convenor Irene Magnusson in the Seniors section.

Third place in the Grand Aggregate went to Lois Yaremkevich, with her prize donated by Golden Loaf Bakery. She was also the winner of the Baking section, convened by Lyn Young, and took home two product hampers from the Elk Point Co-Op.

Due to the absence of entries in two special categories, Ethnic Meal and Junior Sewing, the fourth and fifth people in the high point statistics also won prizes. Lyn Young and Jennifer Flanders tied in points, and were given awards from Albi Electric and Cheri Lindquist, respectively.

Both Mrs. Young and Miss Flanders won two sections on their way to the Aggregate. Mrs. Young won the Fresh Fruit section, convened by Lena Stepa, for a plaque from Woody's Trophy and Gifts, and the Vegetables section, convened by Katherine Shymkiw, with a merchandise prize from Phil's Hardware. Jennifer Flanders accepted the Junior Fair award, sponsored by Wagon Wheel Ranch, from convenor Gisele Pederson, and the Creative Writing award, sponsored by Elk Point Review, from Vicki Brooker.

The Sewing section's convenor, Gloria Zarowny, was also its winner, taking home a prize sponsored by Capitol Drugs.

Rilla Higgins won the Photography section, convened by Lillian Demchuk, with a prize sponsored by Home Town Grocers. This was one of the few sections to enjoy an increase in entries, from 112 last year to 148 this year.

Arts and Crafts, convened by Lee Johnson, had a slight increase in entries. Verona

Lea Flanders won the prize sponsored by Elk Point Insurance.

Edith Mitchell won the House Plants section, convened by Maryann Kozicky, by a single point over Helen Benner, for the prize sponsored jointly by Sunshine Bus Lines and Pederson Bus Lines.

The Hay and Grain section, convened by Glenn Flanders, was won by Brett Flanders. Terry Wozniak Turbo Bulk sponsored the award.

CUSTOMER APPRECIATION - Vogel's UFA held their Customer Appreciation Day in conjunction with the Fair. Doug Lindquist holds the draw box while a young fairgoer makes his pick, and Ed Vogel waits to present the prize. Ruth Vogel was busy pouring coffee at another table laden with barbecued pork on a bun, salad and baked beans, a complimentary supper which was enjoyed by many.

GRAND AGGREGATE WINNER - Norma Berg accepts the challenge trophy from Fair Board Chairperson Verona Lea Flanders and the Vogel's UFA plaque from Jodi Vogel, at the conclusion of the 1993 Elk Point Fair.

Summer games gold for Shanna

Elk Point's members of the Zone 7 Equestrian Team made a great showing at the Alberta Summer Games in Wetaskiwin, winning 5 of the team's 6 medals.

Shanna Baker won a gold in Junior Western Pleasure and a silver in Junior Western Riding, while Tanya Kenyon received a silver in the Junior Key Hole Race and bronzes in Junior Pole Bending and Junior Flag Picking. Nicole Laberge of Wainwright was the other Zone 7 equestrian medalist, winning bronze in Junior Western Pleasure.

Miss Baker also competed in Junior Stock Seat Equitation, placing fourth, and Junior Trail Horse, placing eighth. Miss Kenyon placed fourth in the Junior Barrel Racing.
